

Business Process Improvement Methods

Business process improvement is a larger framework that uses tools like gap analysis to achieve its goals. It is an ongoing, systematic practice of refining existing business processes. As per company business strategic approach changes are made for problem solving . It is conducted primarily to increase efficiency, improve quality, and reduce waste by changing processes.

There are 7 steps to be followed while undertaking process improvement.

Using some of the tools and methodologies mentioned below a Business process improvement plan is put in place which can be implemented by change management methods to ensure complete closure of process gaps.

1. DMAIC technique
2. PDCA
3. Poke Yoke
4. Ishikawa
5. VSM
6. VA
7. Agile
8. RCA
9. Kanban
10. JIT
11. Business Process Modelling
12. TQM
13. Kaizen
14. Six Sigma
15. Lean Manufacturing